

Digital Business Strategist

Do you love solving puzzles? Do people marvel at your unique point of view on things? Can you think on your feet? If so, we're looking for you!

Envano is on the lookout for an energetic, enthusiastic Digital Business Strategist. What does that mean? It means you lead the charge in helping our clients dream up, craft, and implement industry leading digital strategies. Whether a new website, impactful mobile app, compelling brand story, reaching more customers through digital advertising or deploying the latest and greatest tech, we want someone who embraces the challenge of coming up with a big idea and inspires teammates to bring it to life.

This is not a good fit if you prefer giant employee handbooks and being told exactly what to do and how to do it. An Envano Digital Business Strategist is the backbone behind creating and managing strategy, generating revenue, and taking Envano - and our clients - to the next level.

Here's What We Need From You

- ✓ You are an 'Internet junkie.' To you, the web is not only a place where you chat with friends on Facebook, publish posts on LinkedIn, or update your blog, it's a sea endless of possibilities. An opportunity to constantly redefine the playing field for clients, extending it beyond anything anyone has ever imagined.
- ✓ You don't mind working in a loosely structured environment. In fact, you are self-motivated and entrepreneurial, with the ability to yield a firm hand yet a welcome smile.
- ✓ Although you are assertive, you can recognize that you are only one part of a successful team. When we say 'team player,' we mean you can't take the ball down the court by yourself. You are accountable to others, and they to you. Success takes all of us working together.
- ✓ You love to talk, but most importantly you value communication. Have an outstanding, infectious, center-of-the-room personality? You just might be perfect for our quirky team.
- ✓ You act like every day is the first day back to school, with a contagious desire to learn, try something new, and not only embrace - but create change! If you don't like to learn or take some risks, you won't fit in.
